Sunday

in Ordinary Time

Jesus woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm.

In the Storm

"Do you not yet have faith?" Our Lord's question in today's Gospel frames the Sunday liturgies for the remainder of the year, which the Church calls "Ordinary Time."

In the weeks ahead, the Church's liturgy will have us journeying with Jesus and His disciples, reliving their experience of His words and deeds, coming to know and believe in Him as they did.

Notice that today's Psalm almost provides an outline for the Gospel. We sing of sailors caught in a storm; in their desperation, they call to the Lord and He rescues them.

Mark's Gospel today also intends us to hear a strong echo of the story of the prophet Jonah. He, too, was found asleep on a boat when a life-threatening storm broke out that caused his fellow travelers to pray for deliverance, and then to marvel when the storm abated (see Jonah 1:3-16).

But Jesus is something greater than Jonah (see Matthew 12:41). And Mark wants us to come to see what the apostles saw - that God alone has the power to rebuke the wind and the sea (see Isaiah 50:2; Psalm 18:16). This is the point of today's First Reading.

If even the wind and sea obey Him, shouldn't we trust Him in the chaos and storms of our own lives? As with the apostles, the Lord has asked each of us to cross to the other side, to leave behind our old ways to travel with Him in the little ship of the Church.

In their fear today, they call Him, "Teacher." And it is only faith in His teaching that can save us from perishing. We should trust in Christ, and like Christ - who was able to sleep through the storm, confident that God was with Him (see Psalm 116:6; Romans 8:31).

We should live in thanksgiving for our salvation, as today's Epistle tells us - as new creations, no longer for ourselves but for Him who died for our sake.

June 24-Feast of St. John the Baptist

John the Baptist was among the first to recognize the divinity of Jesus. Not only does he leap in the womb, he instructs his own disciples Andrew and John to follow Jesus, calling him the Lamb of God. The priest repeats this startling recognition of Jesus' identity at every Mass: "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world." May the words of John the Baptist kindle the fire of love within you on this solemnity so that you may decrease, see Heaven in the midst of everyday life, live with integrity, and behold the Lamb of God.

Weekly Announcements

Prayer and Play

We would like to invite parents and caregivers to bring their little ones for snacks, prayer and fellowship every other Wednesday in the nursery. Our next meeting will be on Wednesday, July 03, at 9:30 a.m.

Back to School Drive

The Outreach Committee will have a back to school drive for our Effingham County Schools. We are asking for donations of book bags (new or used in good condition), paper, pencils, pens, crayons, scissors, erasers, composition notebooks, index cards, and new or gently used school uniforms. Donations will be accepted July 07- July 21. All donations can be dropped off in the parish office.

Virtus Training Sessions

A VIRTUS "Protecting God's Children for Adults" training is scheduled at St. Anne Church, Richmond Hill-Thursdays, 11 July 2024, from 06:00pm - 09:00pm. This training is required for all volunteers and employees in the Diocese of Savannah. This training addresses the effects of child sexual abuse, the mindset of predators, and our ability as volunteers and employees to keep both children and vulnerable adults safe in our parishes, schools, and social service agencies.

Rachel's Vineyard Retreat

Rachel's Vineyard Retreats are for anyone experiencing emotional, spiritual, or psychological pain due to a past abortion. There will be a retreat on September 6-8, 2024, near Augusta, GA. Complete confidentiality will be honored at all times.

Do you want to be more involved in your Catholic faith? Share your time, talent and treasures in fellowship with other women.
