Journey of Faith

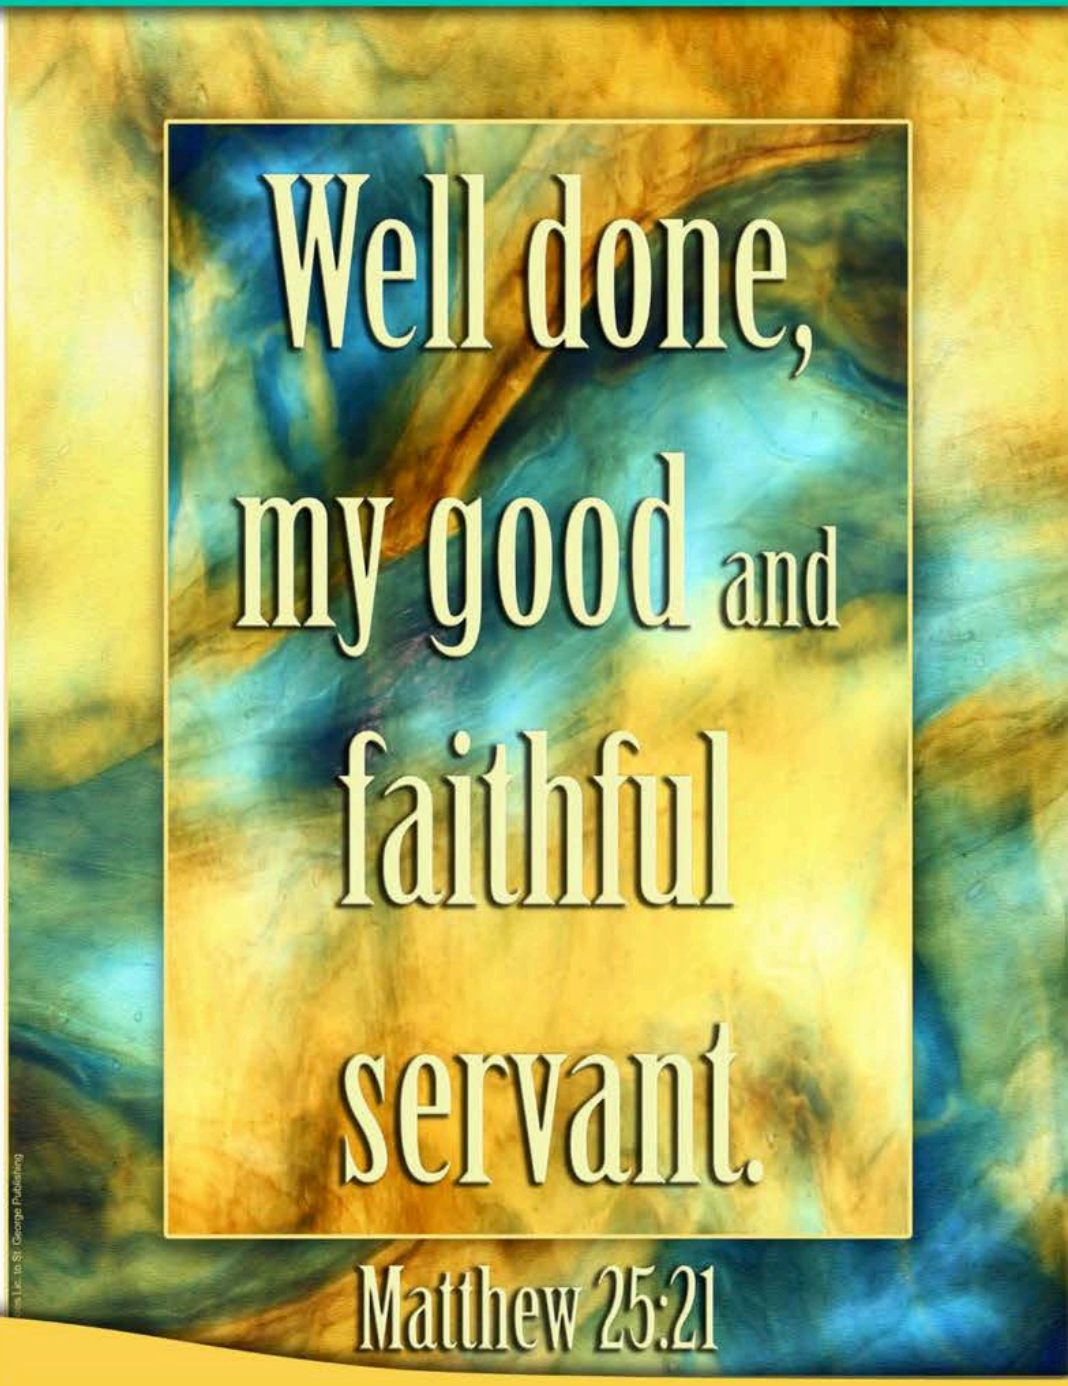

33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In Word & Deed

There's nothing quite as exciting as the discovery of a new artistic talent: a great singer, a gifted writer, or an extraordinary musician. Friends and neighbors take pride in the newfound fame and success and the story of this great discovery can become the stuff of legends. Although the 'overnight sensation' has worked and practiced for years, the appreciation of a new audience breathes life into the artist's work and his or her talent is rewarded, often generously.

What about our own, not-so-famous talents? God gifts each of us with abilities and graces that can make a difference in the lives of others. Discovering and using them is part of the practice of our faith. By investing our talents in the lives of others,

FAMILY LIFE:

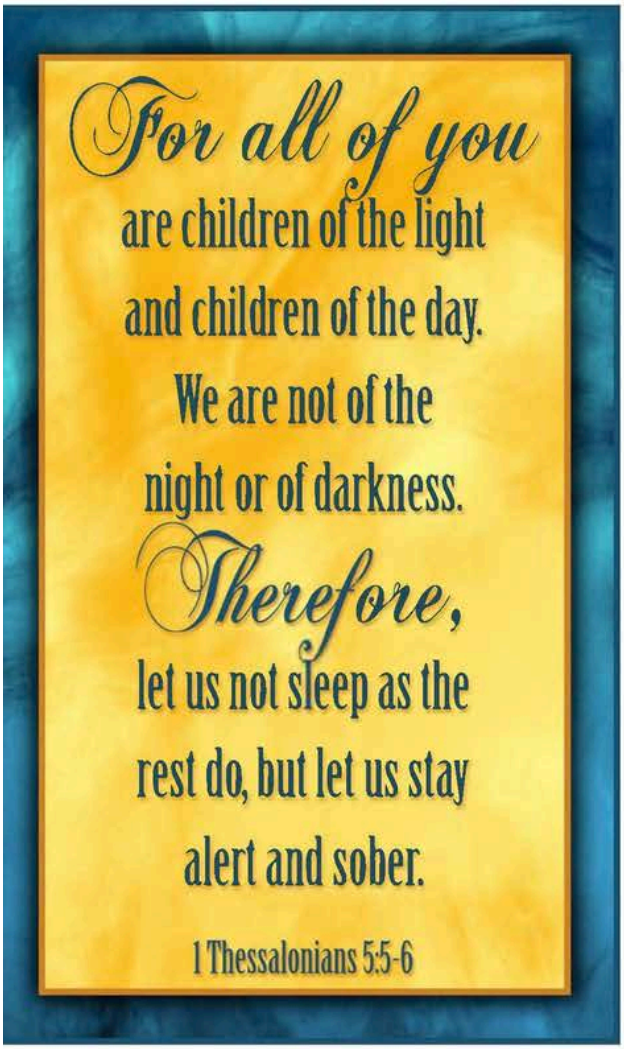

TO WALK AS ONE

To help students appreciate each other, a teacher asked her class to write down on a piece of paper a talent or positive quality about each classmate. She then presented each student with the list of things his or her classmates had written. The recognition and affirmation the students received transformed the class into a community of friends. Years later, many of those students still have the list, and consider it one of the life changing moments in their education.

The Gospel today talks about talents and certainly many homilies will focus on the importance of using those gifts for the benefit of others. So today might be a good time to do a little personal inventory. We take our talents for granted, often dismissing them as 'no big deal' or 'everyone can do that.' But no two people use even the same talents in the same way. What are your talents and how do you contribute to your family? Ask your family to do the same thing and then share the results. Figure out specific ways that each person can express their gifts. By acknowledging each other's uniqueness, we can strengthen our relationships and be transformed in to a community of friends.

everyone benefits. The Gifts of the Holy Spirit are given for the good of the church as we each grow in holiness and grace.

No gift or ability is too small or meaningless when it is used for someone else. A friendly visit, a generous spirit, a listening ear or helping hand can change someone's life for the better. If we truly trust the Holy Spirit to guide and direct us, our contribution will count. It will breathe new life into the work of the church and our efforts will be rewarded.

FAITH FACTS

THE APOSTLES: THOMAS

An ancient tradition of the Church tells us that, after the Ascension of Jesus, the Apostle Thomas evangelized Parthia (which included modern Iraq and Iran) and India.

The ancient tradition says that Saint Thomas converted an Indian king called Gundaphor. In more recent times, it has been discovered that there was indeed a king named Guduphara (or, "Gondophares") in India at that time.

The tradition says that Saint Thomas was eventually martyred by being pierced with a lance.
