Journey of Faith

Dressing for the Feast

Our Lord's parable in today's Gospel is again a fairly straightforward outline of salvation history.

God is the king (see Matthew 5:35), Jesus the bridegroom (see Matthew 9:15), the feast is the salvation and eternal life that Isaiah prophesies in today's First Reading. The Israelites are those first invited to the feast by God's servants, the prophets (see Isaiah 7:25). For refusing repeated invitations and even killing His prophets, Israel has been punished, its city conquered by foreign armies.

Now, Jesus makes clear, God has sending new servants, His apostles, to call not only Israelites, but all people - good and bad alike - to the feast of His kingdom. This an image of the Church, which Jesus elsewhere compares to a field sown with both wheat and weeds, and a fishing net that catches good fish and bad (see Matthew 13:24-43, 47-50).

We have all been called to this great feast of love in the Church, where, as Isaiah foretold, the veil that once separated the nations from the covenants of Israel has been destroyed, where the dividing wall of enmity has been torn down by the blood of Christ (see Ephesians 2:11-14).

As we sing in today's Psalm, the Lord has led us to this feast, refreshing our souls in the waters of baptism, spreading the table before us in the Eucharist. As Paul tells us in today's Epistle, in the glorious riches of Christ, we will find supplied whatever we need.

And in the rich food of His body, and the choice wine of His blood, we have a foretaste of the eternal banquet in the heavenly Jerusalem, when God will destroy death forever (see Hebrews 12:22-24).

But are we dressed for the feast, clothed in the garment of righteousness (see Revelation 19:8)? Not all who have been called will be chosen for eternal life, Jesus warns. Let us be sure that we're living in a manner worthy of the invitation we've received (see Ephesians 4:1).

St. Boniface Brick Program

St. Boniface is once again selling personalized bricks that will be installed in St. Boniface's patio. Look at our patio that is located on the side of the Hall. What a wonderful and lasting way to honor or memorialize a loved one or to commemorate a special event such as a birth, baptism, first communion, confirmation, graduation, or wedding!! All proceeds from the Brick Campaign will go toward the building fund for our new Church. This Brick Campaign order period ends October 25, 2026. Please contact Gerry Klock at 912-596-9412 with any questions. Forms can be found on the side table in the narthex.

Want to learn more about the Georgia Martyrs and their upcoming beatification? Join us for a special Zoom session with Fr. Pablo Migone as we explore the lives and heroic witness of the Georgia Martyrs and the upcoming celebration of their beatification. Learn who these five Franciscan missionaries were, why their witness still matters today, what beatification means for the Church, and what you need to know about this historic moment for Catholics in Georgia.

There will be a presentation in English on October 15 at 8 pm, and a Spanish presentation on October 13 at 7 pm. No registration is required for either presentation. Presentation links are in the comments.

Register to attend the Mass of Beatification by October 15!
